

Tax Free Wine Supply for Yachts.

How does it work?

Depending on the yachts status and location your yacht may qualify for tax free wine order for your yacht charter.

Qualifying Orders

- ✔ All orders for delivery outside the EU
- ✔ Orders within the EU with a valid EU VAT number and for delivery outside of the issuing VAT number country and outside of France. (e.g. Maltese VAT number, delivery in Ibiza)
- ✔ Inside the EU if you meet the following requirements;

Tax free goods, destined for consumption during the period of a valid charter contract, are available to a commercially registered yacht;

- Employing a permanent crew.
- That leaves the port within the 48 hours following delivery of the tax-free goods.

You must supply us with the following documents to prove exemption of tax;

- A copy of the Ships' Papers clearly stating the vessel is commercially registered.
- A copy of the chartercontract.
- A copy of the crew list.
- A signed and stamped copy of a commercial attestation.

Restrictions

- It is forbidden to consume goods bought under tax-free conditions alongside.
- We cannot deliver tax free goods to static charters.
- It is forbidden to disembark goods purchased under tax free conditions unless payment of the local taxes has been paid to the local authorities

Delivery Times

Due to Customs constraints we need at least 48 hours' notice to carry out a tax-free delivery. We will also need to be informed at the time of placing an order whether a tax-free delivery is required. Tax on deliveries cannot be reclaimed retrospectively.

Customs fees

The Customs Agents fees for processing a tax-free delivery are at least €200. Therefore, tax-free delivery is only worthwhile when the tax on an order exceeds €200 – usually a minimum of €1,000 for a wine and spirits order or €3,500 for soft drinks.
